Brickville: The Adventures of Ben O'Hara

Motorcycle Madness!

"Welcome to Brickville!"

"A town full of happy, friendly, hard-working citizens."

"Where there's something for everyone: Hotels, theaters, shopping centers, restaurants. It's a small, but thriving, metropolis."

"And all watched over by its loyal and protective police force."

"Speaking of which, allow me to introduce myself. The name's Benjamin O'Hara, police officer, third class."

Brickville

A small metropolis out in the middle of somewhere, in one of the more advanced countries of the Planet Brix, the city of Brickville has been a thriving and peaceful town for as long as anyone can remember.

The town has been built up over the years, from a small train station depot in the days of the old west, all the way up to the small, thriving city it is now. Even the occasional trouble from neighboring town of Edsonville, whose crime rate is rather high, has failed to dishearten the citizens here. From the Brickville Academy of Science and Innovation, to the Buy-Mart shopping center and Mason Theater, all the way down to the Fire and Police Departments and the zoo, there's a lot to see and do here in Brickville.

Ludwig Von Vanderhosen

No one quite knows the entire history of Ludwig Von Vanderhosen, although rumor has it he grew up in the small country of Anglershtine, a place where life is tough on everybody.

Known for his signature laugh, ("Ha! Ha! Ha!" laughed with an accent) Ludwig is infamous throughout the world. He's robbed banks in many of the world's major cities. Motaris, Studsdon, New Brick, Brickago, Blockyo, Builjing, Kiro, Kjelhi, Bloscow, he's seen them all.

Now he's turned up in Brickville, and Ben O'Hara may have finally met his match.

Summer 2014 we're launching an exciting adventure with a COMIC series that weaves life's lessons into stories and media that are sure to entertain, educate and empower. The comic series also serves as a storyboard – these stories will be turned into a VIDEO series of narrated non-animated still images with audio and visual effects. Proceeds from these comic and preliminary video projects will fund ambitions to assemble further materials, staff and operations in order to ultimately create full ANIMATION videos utilizing stop-motion film technology and practices.

COMIC

Circle pi Film Group has been inspired by a fusion of LEGO products, Reverend W. Awdry's creation Thomas the Tank Engine, stop-motion practices employed in Wallace and Gromit animations, and the sheer creative genius of George Lucas and Walt Disney.

Responsibility blended with entrepreneurial spirit drives us to turn our life's blessings into media that empower the next generation. – creative fun coupled with a purpose of teaching life's lessons.

VIDEO

Encouraging NATURAL CURIOSITY – a love to explore the world – is a great way to learn and understand how the world works. Learning can empower to remain steadfast when appropriate, and inspire change where necessary. Supporting curiosity encourages the joy of a lifetime of learning.

Fostering development by inspiring creativity – and learning – maybe finding the next budding leader, architect or engineer. Cognitive development through manipulation of LEGO products and dreaming up adventures takes creativity, logical thinking and planning. Science. Technology. Physics. Problem solving.

Troubleshooting. Order and procedure. Random creativity. Systematic creativity. All a part of developing CRITICAL THINKING SKILLS.

ANIMATION

Storytelling – re-enacting and narrating events that matter. Learning moral lessons. Acquiring core values.. Even improved speech while making up stories and interacting with siblings, friends and collaborators. SOCIAL SKILLS through valuable lessons about teamwork, sharing, kindness, and emotions.

Collaboration. Sharing. Cooperation. Our stories and resultant enjoyment of LEGO products are sure to build active IMAGINATION, serve as a catalyst for independent self-entertainment, and foster group interaction – learning to be a good friend and sibling.
